.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue an order direction or writ particularly one in the nature of writ Mandamus or any other appropriate writ declaring the proceedings No. TDC/999/P1/Admn/96-04 dt. 3.8.2004 as illegal, arbitrary and beyond the powers vested and consequently set aside the same.

sCounsel for the Petitioner: MR.G.VIDYASAGAR

Counsel for the Respondent: MR.NANDIGAM KRISHANA RAO

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

Heard learned counsel for both the parties.

Sri N.Krishna Rao, learned counsel for the respondent-Corporation, contended that the impugned proceedings No.TDC/999/P1/Admn/96-04, dated 03.08.2004, have been passed in pursuance of the review petition filed by the petitioner. If the petitioner is not at all interested in the review of his earlier order, the order of de novo enquiry will be withdrawn.

Sri B.Shiva Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, stated that the petitioner is ready to withdraw the review petition filed by him.

The statements of the learned counsel for the parties have been recorded. The de novo enquiry was ordered under the impugned proceedings basing on the review petition filed by the petitioner. As the review petition stands withdrawn, on instructions of the learned counsel for the petitioner, the question of conducting de novo enquiry does not arise.

Hence, the writ petition is closed.
